OUR MATERIALS

NATURAL MATERIALS. UNIQUE EXPRESSIONS. This section presents a curated selection of marbles, granites, natural stones, and onyxes, chosen to represent the breadth, quality, and material richness of the solutions available.

The images and surfaces shown here serve an inspirational purpose: each slab of natural stone is inherently unique, with veining, tones, and movements that naturally vary from one block to another. The textures displayed should therefore be understood as representative facsimiles—useful in conveying the identity of the material—rather than identical or reproducible samples.

Nature does not replicate; it interprets. And it is precisely this uniqueness that makes every project authentic.

The selected stones that follow offers a broad and cross-sectional overview, designed to spark ideas, suggest combinations, and support the creative phase. The final selection of materials is always made in close dialogue with the client, carefully considering project requirements, intended applications, finishes, tonal variations, and the actual availability of the raw material.

This catalogue is a starting point for the creation of bespoke solutions, where each stone becomes an integral part of a truly unique project.
